Paper Title:

Declaration of Original Work by Contributors to Concrete Institute of Australia (CIA)

CIA must obtain a written confirmation of original work and ownership from contributing authors to Concrete In Australia – this is to safeguard against plagiarism and ensure that the authors who are published are those from whom the work originated.

Therefore CIA requests the signature of all the authors. The authors warrant and represent that they are all of the authors work identified above. The work is the original creation of the authors and is not copied from any other work, except for the portions that are clearly indicated by credits contained therein.
